Freedom From Catholicism Mary Ann Collins

There are millions of people who have "inherited" a religion. They did not choose their personal faith. It was given to them, sometimes forced on them by their family and their social circles. This book is directed to one prominent group of such people, namely Roman Catholics. Among Catholics today, there is a growing number of individuals who are sincerely searching for something new. This guidebook is full of practical information as well as prayers to provide sincere pilgrims the deliverance they seek from oppressive spiritual strongholds found within the Catholic faith.
