In this volume we learn of the source of Gnosticism. Importantly it upholds H. P. Blavatsky's startling declaration of the once universal religion from which Gnosticism, and indeed Buddhism and Brahmanism, and early Christianity, and all religions spring. Basic beliefs of the Gnostics are clarified, and made understandable as we recognize that there is always a direct continuation from age to age of this secret knowledge of hidden and spiritual things. Those especially interested in the Pistis Sophia, a sacred book, says H.P.B., of the early Gnostics or the primitive Christians, will find herein a wealth of genuine information.
