A History of Middle Eastern Theologies (Culture and Civilization in the Middle East) Hugh Goddard

It is not often appreciated that as well as being the geographical origin of three major religious traditions - Judaism, Christianity and Islam - the Middle East has also been the scene of the continuous co-existence and mutual interaction between the believers of these three traditions until today. This book traces the development of the theologies - the systematic reflections on such themes as God, the universe, and humanity, of all three traditions in a Middle Eastern context from the rise of Islam to today.
