Stella in Australia (Italian Edition) Minie Minarelli

Stella ha le idee molto chiare sul suo futuro: intende diventare una ballerina di successo, trovare un ragazzo molto ricco grazie al suo lavoro (“e non perché figlio del papi”) e dimostrare al mondo di che pasta è fatta. Presa dallo sconforto per la sua realtà quotidiana, fatta di raccomandazioni e di provini che non portano mai ad un sì, Stella decide di andarsene dall’Italia. La sua logica, del tutto particolare, le fa decidere di migrare in Australia.

Andrà forse come pensano gli amici, che se la immaginano abbronzata a fare surf tutto il giorno?

Oppure andrà come credono i parenti, che ormai la dipingono disperata e ubriaca alla mercé del destino?

O ancora: riuscirà a fare ciò che si era proposta, e cioè diventare una ballerina talentuosa e strapagata?

Una cosa è certa: il suo cammino sarà seminato di “piani B”, di emozioni, di avventure e di nuovi affetti.

A dimostrazione del fatto che la vita del migrante di nuova generazione passa attraverso infiniti colori: dalla determinazione più entusiastica, alla solitudine più profonda, alle frustrazioni del visto e dell’uso di una lingua straniera.

Così comincia la sua nuova vita: con un primo anno alla scoperta di un nuovo mondo, di una nuova quotidianità, di una nuova Stella.

“Questo è solo l’inizio”.
