With the Argylls: A Soldier's Memoir Ray Ward

a wonderful example of a soldier's memoir' - Trevor Royle When Ray Ward died in 1999, his sons discovered an old and dusty manuscript in an Afrika Korps ammunition box in the cellar of the family home in Glasgow. These papers contained a collection of their father's memoirs, which detailed his experiences as an infantry officer during the Second World War, when he served in the 1st Battalion of the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders. His memoirs give vivid accounts of Ray Ward's time in Eritrea, Abyssinia, Egypt, the Western Desert, Sicily and mainland Italy, and bring to life individual episodes of bravery, adventure and danger that characterised the North African and Italian campaigns.

As a college student, I exactly feel bored for you to read. If their teacher asked them to go to the library in order to make a summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just minor students that have reading's heart or real their passion. They just do what the trainer wants, like asked to go to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading really. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring and can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise, word says, ways to reach Chinese's country.
