Betrayed (Worshipped Series) (Volume 2) Mrs. Brie Paisley

He is darkness. He is everything that should make me run and never look back. I should run. I should leave and forget everything he makes me want and feel. I have tried running, only to be caught and brought back. Why does this man want me? Why does he want to claim everything I have? I just want to be free. I want and need my freedom from him. I need freedom from his darkness. I need freedom from his chains that bind me. I need freedom from falling for the man that I know is a monster. She is light. Everything that is good while I am consumed with darkness. She is my salvation from the monster that dwells inside of me. I can't help but want her. I can't help but need her. I have to consume her in every way possible. She is mine whether she wants to believe it or not. She wants her freedom from me. But what she doesn't see, I am the very thing she wants and needs. Freedom to be herself. Freedom to let go of her pain. Freedom to fall for the one man that sets her body on fire. Body, mind, and soul I will claim what is mine.
