Without Remorse: A Simon Purvis Novel Gil Van Wyck

Finding her daily routine boring, Sondra decides a fun-filled evening of music and dance would be a change for the better. Suitably dressed for the evening's outing she travels some distance to a popular nightclub where she hopes to have an enjoyable time and possibly meet that special man. Unfortunately her dream of a pleasurable happening turns into an unforgettable nightmare. Raped, beaten, and immorally used by men she previously trusted she forgoes professional help and seeks to gain retribution on her own. Simon is hired to find the alleged rapists. He fails. Sondra persists in her search and once again finds herself caught in their malicious web. Forcefully abducted, terrorized with fear, she narrowly escapes with her life. Then the unexpected happens. Her abductors search her out. Fighting for her life she is forced into a heinous act to defend herself. Arrested, arraigned, and placed on trial, a panel of her peers must determine if her action was just. This book contains pervasive adult language, violent images, and intense graphic sexual scenarios.
