Indigos are special people that come to Earth to help others. They often have an intense, warrior-like presence that may intimidate others. They come to Earth to speak their truth and cannot tolerate injustice or lies of any kind. They are sensitive and sometimes feel like they absorb the world's problems. They feel misunderstood and like they are never quite normal. They may have felt like they were dropped off on the wrong planet at some point in their lives. Indigo Adults may have had dysfunctional childhoods. The anger they have always felt deep down may cause them to want to express themselves in out-of-the-ordinary ways. They may be pierced or tattooed. They are often unable to filter the words that come out of their mouths. They may surprise or even irritate you with their truth, but they are usually willing to say the things that others are thinking but just afraid to say. They are soldiers, police officers, protesters, whistle blowers, and defenders. They are children that sometimes present a challenge for their families. They have an abundance of energy, and anger is a natural part of the essence of an Indigo. Sometimes they don't know what makes them angry, but that anger helps to propel them towards their life purpose. They are here to lead the way by traditional or nontraditional means. They will change the rules that no longer make sense and defend the ones that do. They are light. They are love. They are important. They are Indigo Warriors.
