Orson Welles: Power, Heart, and Soul F.X. Feeney

This incisive introduction to the life and work of Orson Welles is an essential study of one of the most important American artists of the twentieth century. With special attention paid to the political, social, and cultural milieus in which Welles lived and worked, this in-depth personal essay and biographical portrait brings to life a filmmaker who is too often either mythologized or misrepresented, fully humanizing the man behind masterworks like Citizen Kane, The Magnificent Ambersons, Chimes at Midnight, and many more.
