Cindy, Where Are You? Roger Rapel

Jim's marriage was on the rocks because of his long hours working as a Detective Sergeant including his after hours drinking. He was on the verge of having a fling with Jackie a young vivacious detective who had shown more than a professional interest in him. His life was already falling apart. Then came the investigation into Cindy's disappearance which would test Jim's skills as a detective. 'Cindy where are you?' became the mantra in his mind as he stared at her haunting image. His world would be turned upside down by the revelations uncovered which reached into the government corridors of power. His bosses were told to back off the investigation by the secret services. But they didn't, what they found made even the most hardened officers cringe with disgust as more depraved sexual acts were uncovered...
