Is your child being bullied?

Are you not sure how to help?

Sue Anderson works with children affected by bullying, both targets and bullies. She facilitates workshops for parents and teachers showing them how they can empower children to interrupt the bullying pattern. This book provides a simple hands-on, step-by-step guide for you to support your child - from preschooler through high school. It shows you how to encourage and guide your child to move from bullied to Unbullyable. Your Unbullyable child:

- can choose how they respond to other people's attempts to bully them
- believes no one has the power to diminish their self-esteem
- understands how the bullying interaction works and how to interrupt it
- stubbornly refuses to be bullied.

Sounds too good to be true?

Hundreds of Unbullyable success stories can't be wrong.
