Compliance & Public Authority: A Theory with International Applications (RFF Policy and Governance Set)

Offers a theory of compliance and authority that would be applicable to behavior concerning economic contracts, law, enforcement, and international relations. It examines the problem of compliance in centralized (e.g. national and state laws) and decentralized (international treaties) systems. Applies the theory to explain the level of compliance with Partial Nuclear Test Ban Treaty and the International North Pacific Fisheries Convention. Originally published in 1979
