David Platt, autor de Radical, éxito del New York Times, investiga: ¿«Qué quiso decir realmente Jesús cuando dijo: “Sígueme”?».

Para muchos cristianos, seguir a Jesús es mejor visto desde lejos. Queremos ser discípulos mientras serlo no se entrometa en nuestro estilo de vida, en nuestras preferencias, en nuestras comodidades e incluso en nuestra religión. ¿Y si realmente tomáramos el tiempo de mirar a Jesús a los ojos y ver quién es él realmente? ¿Qué tal si en verdad escuchamos las palabras que Jesús está pronunciando?

La invitación de Jesús para seguirle fue —y todavía es— una invitación a una relación marcada por abnegación, intimidad personal, ambición resuelta y alegría infinita. Cuando las personas en verdad se comprometen con esta invitación personal de Jesús a seguirlo, todo cambia, puesto que es digno de toda nuestra confianza y todo nuestro afecto. Edificando sobre las lecciones de Radical, este libro nos motivará a todos a experimentar el gran propósito para el cual hemos sido creados: Exaltar la gloria de Dios esparciendo el evangelio de Cristo por toda la tierra, —para hacer discípulos que harán discípulos.

David Platt, author of the New York Times bestselling book Radical: Taking Back Your Faith from the American Dream, wants to know: “What did Jesus really mean when He said, ‘Follow me’?”

For many Christians, following Jesus is seen as best done from a distance. We want to be disciples as long as doing so does not intrude on our lifestyles, our preferences, our comforts, and even our religion. But what if we really took the time to look Jesus in the eye and see who He truly is? What if we really listened to Jesus’ words and heard what He is truly saying?

Jesus’ invitation to follow Him was—and still is—an invitation into a relationship marked by self-denial, personal intimacy, single-minded ambition, and ultimate joy. When people truly engage with Jesus’ personal invitation to follow Him, everything changes, for He is worthy of all our trust and all our affections. Building on the lessons in Radical, this book will motivate all of us to experience the grand purpose for which we have been created: to exalt the glory of God by spreading the gospel of Christ—to make disciples who are making disciples.
